

I am writing to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry program called "Stolen Honor". This program is an offensive example of big business working to influence the election process in their own favor. These stations are supposed to be serving the public interest, not the interest of wealthy businesses. I believe the FCC should censure such blatant attempts to sway the voters to a corporation's opinion without providing an opposing viewpoint. Thank you, Jenny Weyler